But modern cuisine also takes centre stage, with delicious highlights such as carpaccio, Caesar salad and more. All you have to do is find the perfect way to start – we'll take care of the rest!

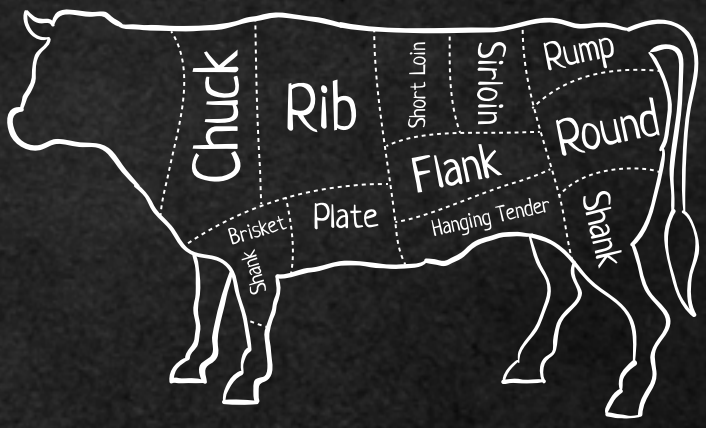
STEAKS & CO.

Meat-tastic — that's the motto here! Finest Alpine beef and pork with excellent side dishes and the occasional explosion of flavor! Rare, medium, or well-done? You might almost think it's a new science when it comes to the right level of doneness. But when it's grilled to perfection, what could possibly taste better...



"STEAK IT EASY!"

STEAK DONENESS

RARE

The doneness level rare refers to very undercooked steaks. The outside of the meat is slightly more cooked than a blue steak, but the inside is still red and essentially raw.

MEDIUM RARE

Medium rare is the perfect steak doneness for many meat lovers. Most of the meat is pink, with the center still slightly raw. On the outside, it has a nicely crisp crust.

MEDIUM

A medium steak is cooked just slightly past the ideal point, but the inside is still nicely pink, tender, and juicy. Toward the outside, the meat becomes firmer, and the crust is crisp.

MEDIUM WELL

The doneness level medium well means the steak is almost fully cooked through. The crust is richly browned, and the meat is only slightly pink in the center.

WELL DONE

The meat is fully cooked through and has an even brown color throughout, with a dark brown crust.

SALAMI, MARGHERITA & CO.

Pizza, pizza, that's all that matters! Every great pizza begins with the dough and ends with the dough. One thing's for sure: it all comes down to the flour. While the crust should be light, fluffy, and thick—almost like a piece of pizza bread—the center needs to be paper-thin and delicate, providing the perfect stage for a wide variety of toppings. From classic tomato-and-cheese to modern Italian-inspired creations with spinach, Brie, and Parma ham. Just try it!

GRÜNER VELTLINER FEDERSPIEL ROTES TOR HIRTZBERGER 2025

Weingut Franz Hirtzberger – 91 points from Falstaff (Federspiel Cup 2014 – Wachau lightness).
According to legend, the “Rotes Tor” (Red Gate) of Franz Hirtzberger—remains of the old town wall—was soaked with blood during the Swedish wars after a battle. In the vineyards below, Grüner Veltliner ripens in the categories Federspiel and Smaragd. The soil is characterized by gneiss, mica, and slate with a top layer of brown earth. The Federspiel from the “Rotes Tor” vineyard is a powerful Veltliner with a distinctive “peppery” note and fine spiciness—very complex for this category. Medium greenish yellow. Yellow apple fruit with a hint of mandarin zest, delicate herbal spice, tobacco nuances, and a mineral touch. Juicy and elegant, with extract-sweet yellow tropical fruit nuances, a finesse-rich acidity structure, approachable, light-footed, and versatile in use.

0,75 LITER 55,90

GRÜNER VELTLINER SMARAGD ROTES TOR HIRTZBERGER 2024/25

Weingut Franz Hirtzberger
Medium greenish yellow. On the nose, fine tobacco spice, delicate notes of honeydew melon and pear fruit, subtle herbal spice, and ripe apples. Full-bodied and complex, with a fine interplay of acidity, pleasant extract sweetness on the finish, and good persistence. Dark minerality and very good aging potential. Aged in stainless steel tanks and large wooden casks.

RED WINES.

The richness of a fine red wine combined with a perfectly grilled steak – what more could you ask for? That's why we increasingly recommend Vino Rosso instead of a Bloody Mary. These red delights are wines you can truly sink your teeth into, offering a whole symphony of sensations: from subtle smoky notes of cranberry and cherry on the palate to delicate aromas of licorice, elderberries, and black olives. Those who immerse themselves in this cuvée of exciting desire and slow, indulgent passion will discover a world of refined pleasure – warmth from within, the scent of vibrant life, and the endless comfort of red indulgence.
